8. NON ATTENDANCE / NO SHOW:

Should the company not attend the event for which such agreement has been signed, the deposit for the space reservation will not be refunded. CONTURSA will keep such amount as penalty for damages. In case of force majeure CONTURSA can not hold the event, as established in clause 9 below, or the exhibitor present before the event a recent PCR or similar medical test indicating positive for COVID19 the amount paid to the date will be returned to the same.

9. FORCE MAJEURE

9.1. For the purposes of the COVID-19 pandemic, a cause of force majeure shall be understood to be that which directly makes it impossible or impedes holding the Event in its entirety on the agreed date and which has its origin in the measures taken by the health or governmental authorities or any other competent public administration as a consequence of the aforementioned pandemic. In particular, measures taken by the public authority that directly and completely prevent the Event from being held (i.e. border closures in the case of international events, total confinement, and prohibition of congresses and conferences) shall be considered force majeure.

In addition to the above, "Force Majeure" shall mean the following events: (i) war (whether declared or not), hostilities, invasion, acts of foreign enemies, extensive military mobilisation; (ii) civil war, riots, rebellion and revolution, usurpation - military or otherwise - of power, insurrection, acts of terrorism, sabotage or piracy; (v) plague, epidemic, natural disaster entailing the declaration of a catastrophic zone; (vi) general labour disturbances such as general strike at the national level.

9.2. If any of the causes of "Force Majeure" occur on the date scheduled for the Event, the interested party will inform the other party of such facts as soon as it becomes aware of them. In such a circumstance, if Contursa communicates the suspension of the Event, action will be taken in accordance with the provisions of clause 8 above. Should the date of the Event be postponed to a new date, the amounts already paid by the Company shall remain linked to the Event, in conformity with the updated date. All other terms and conditions of the contract shall remain in full effect.

10. OBLIGATORY INSURANCES: CONTURSA will contract in name of the exhibitor a Damage and a Civil Liability insurance. The cost of both insurances is € 51.20 + Tax. These prices are subject to modifications, according to the current rate of the Insurer.

INSURANCE AGAINST DAMAGE: CONTURSA will contract in name of the exhibitor an All-Risks Material Damage insurance policy, with additional coverage, to assure all goods of any kind or description which are located within CONTURSA site and to which the exhibitor holds title or another insurable interest.

To such effect, the exhibitor must declare to CONTURSA the new-for-old replacement value of all of its goods. However the minimum assured capital will be set in 20.000 €.

NOTE: In case you want to extend the assured capital of more than € 20,000 at first risk, it will be analyzed case by case. The contracted coverage will take effect from the moment the insured goods enter the exhibition site, it will be in effect during the assembly, exhibition and dismantling, and will end when the goods leave the site. In any case, theft of cash is excluded.

DEDUCTIONS: A deductible of the first 500 € is applicable to all claims made under this insurance, except for those covered by the Insurance Compensation Consortium, in which case the deductions specified in the Consortium's regulations will apply,

CONTURSA will contract Civil Liability Insurance policy in the name of the exhibitor as follows:

- 1.-Period of coverage: from the moment of entry into the exhibition premises, including the erection, until exit from the premises, including the dismantling.
- 2.-Coverage: the exhibitor's extra-contractual civil liability incurred as a result of its participation in the exhibition, provided that material damages and/or body injury or the prejudice derived from mentioned damage are claimed from the exhibitor.
- 3.-Insured persons: the exhibitors, the exhibitor's staff and/or their subcontractors. The subcontractors who work for the exhibitors for the erection/ dismantling, must be in possession of Civil Liability Insurance.
